

Support in Self-Compliance

We advise you in the take-back of your own commercial packaging.

Savings should not be made at the cost of legal compliance. That's why we provide comprehensive consulting and support when you opt for taking back your own commercial packaging – and it goes without saying that this should be done in conformity to all legal regulations. With our know-how, we enable your company to avoid the licensing fees for participating in a take-back and recycling system, yet you are still able to benefit from an environmentally-friendly and legally complying disposal solution for your commercial packaging.

Our Services

1. We provide comprehensive advice on the pros and cons of self-compliance.
2. We assist you in taking back your own commercial packaging.

Your Benefits

- ✓ Cost savings thanks to self-compliance
- ✓ No legal risks thanks to our comprehensive consulting
